

Summer 2026 Course Descriptions:

French for Travel (Mini Course) NEW!

(Teacher: Abbey Spurrell)

Fridays, 12:30-2:00pm

4 weeks: May 29, June 5, June 12, June 19

Planning a trip to a Francophone country? Mastering a few everyday French basics can go a long way toward making a good impression and more thoroughly enjoying your trip. Join this 4-week mini course in preparation for a culturally graceful stay wherever you may be headed!

A1/A2: Beginner ONLINE!

(Teacher: Cécile Hager)

Tuesday/Thursday, 10:00-11:00am

7 weeks: July 14 - August 27

This A1/A2 French course is designed for beginners transitioning toward the A2 level. This 7-week course meets twice a week for one hour, reviewing grammar and foundational skills and introducing more advanced concepts, with a focus on key conversation vocabulary to build confidence in everyday French.

- Required Textbooks:
<https://tinyurl.com/4v4m62kd>
<https://tinyurl.com/mj23yx8s>

A2: Advanced Beginner

(Teacher: Sylvie Roisin)

Tuesday, 5:00-7:00pm

6 weeks: May 21 & 28, June 1, 18, 22 & 29

In this advanced beginner class, students develop listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills through interactive activities, role-plays, and cultural insights. By the end of the course, participants will be able to handle simple conversations and understand familiar phrases used in daily life.

- Required Textbook:
https://inspire.hachettefle.fr/inspire-2_livre-de-l-eleve_fr.html

A2: Advanced Beginner

(Teacher: Claudine Baker)

Thursday, 2:30-4:30pm

10 weeks: May 28 – July 30

This A2 class is tailored to advanced beginners who have mastered the basics and are looking to continue their journey to French fluency and comprehension. The class includes a combination of casual conversation, discussions based on French texts and cultural themes, and structured grammar lessons.

- Required Textbooks:
<https://tinyurl.com/2sccer43>
<https://tinyurl.com/ymye9mz2>

A2: Advanced Beginner ONLINE!

(Teacher: Claudine Baker)

Tuesday, 1:00-2:00pm

May 26 – July 28

This ONLINE A2 class is tailored to advanced beginners who have mastered the basics and are looking to continue their journey to French fluency and comprehension. The class includes a combination of casual conversation, discussions based on French texts and cultural themes, and structured grammar lessons.

- Required Textbook:
<https://tinyurl.com/r4w2e7pn>

A2/B1: Advanced Beginner/Intermediate

(Teacher: Abbey Spurrell)

Wednesdays, 12:00-2:00pm

6 weeks: May 13 - June 17

Tailored for intermediate learners, this course leverages Grammaire en dialogue – Débutant – (CLE International) to provide clear grammar explanations and engaging dialogues. Each session combines structured grammar practice with practical vocabulary, using the book's interactive exercises and real-life scenarios to boost speaking skills.

B1/B2: Intermediate

(Teacher: Claudine Baker)

Tuesdays, 2:30-4:30pm

May 26 – July 28

This B1/B2 class is tailored to intermediate learners seeking to enhance fluency and accuracy, combining casual conversation, discussions based on French texts and cultural themes, and structured grammar lessons.

- Required Textbook:
<https://tinyurl.com/2sccer43>

C1/C2: Advanced

(Teacher: Claudine Baker)

Tuesdays, 10:00am-12:00pm

May 26 – July 28

This C1/C2 class is tailored to advanced learners seeking to enhance fluency and accuracy, combining casual conversation, discussions based on French texts and cultural themes, and structured grammar lessons.

- Required Textbook:
<https://tinyurl.com/3sbe8543>